May 2012

Greetings!

This is an interim Knollcrest newsletter, used for important breaking news! The picnic is on, and we have a message from its chair, Rob Hoyt of 19 East View.

Save the Date!!

The Knollcrest Picnic is Saturday, July 14, 2012! We hope it will be reminiscent of the old picnics we enjoyed at the beach over the years, with lots of kids' games (sack races, egg toss, etc) good food, raffle prizes, music and a chance to catch up with all our neighbors.

Over the next few weeks, we will be asking all Knollcrest residents how many adults and/or kids from their house will be attending.

We will ask each household to make a donation in whatever amount they feel appropriate to help with the costs of game prizes, picnic supplies, beverages, equipment rentals, etc. As a guideline, the actual cost of running the picnic is 20-$25 per adult and $10 per child under 16.

We will also be asking each household to bring one dish, adequate for a few people. We will divide up the neighborhood, with each street being asked to bring one particular type of dish, i.e. salads, desserts, etc.

Lastly, please consider donating a raffle prize. We would like to stick to new, unopened household or sporting good items for the raffle, or things like event tickets, bottles of booze or a nice wine.

More to follow soon!!

This newsflash is brought to you by a committee of interested homeowners and does not necessarily reflect the views of the Knollcrest Board of Directors.

Volunteers!

Join the Picnic Committee!

If you can help out with the picnic in any way please do! The more hands on deck the better! Just email the newsletter at knollcrestnews@yahoo.com. The committee is in need of street canvassers, grill masters, set up, clean up, and help with the games among many other tasks! Please sign up if you can!!!
